

RESOLUTION #331

A Resolution recognizing the 1999 National Volunteer Week.

WHEREAS: The Town Council of Yacolt, Washington is in regular session this 19th day of April, 1999; and

WHEREAS: The entire community can effect positive change with any volunteer action no matter how big or small; and

WHEREAS: Volunteers can connect with local community service opportunities through hundreds of community service organizations like Volunteer Centers; and

WHEREAS: More than 100 million volunteers working in their communities utilize their time and talent daily to make a real difference in the lives of children, adults and the elderly; and

WHEREAS: During this week, all over the nation, service projects will be performed and volunteers recognized for their commitment to "Connect America" through community service; and

WHEREAS: Volunteers have the power to fight the pervasive feeling of social disconnection experienced by 81% of Americans and especially young people; and

WHEREAS: Volunteers are vital to our future as a caring and productive nation;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED: By the Town Council of Yacolt, Washington, as follows:

That during National Volunteer Week April 18-24, 1999, Yacolt will urge all citizens to volunteer and "light the way" in their community. By volunteering and recognizing those who serve, we can replace disconnection with understanding and compassion.

Adopted this 19th day of April, 1999.
